Confidor and Calypso insecticides use dependable technology to provide targeted insect control. This means many insects that can harm your orchard are quickly dealt with while beneficial species are left alone. So if your aim is for a successful and sustainable future, you know exactly what to look for.

With Confidor® and Calypso®, your future is looking good.